Welcome to
St. Andrew the Apostle Catholic Church
November 8th, 2026 – 32nd Sunday in ordinary time - Year - A

My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord, my God." Psalm 63:2b

Lord God, awaken in me a lasting thirst for You. Give me the wisdom to seek You before other desires. Claim my heart and teach me to remain faithful through seasons of waiting and weariness. Keep the lamp of faith burning in me through prayer, mercy and patient love. When I face sorrow or remember those who have died, strengthen me with the hope of Christ's resurrection and His glorious coming. Help me live this day ready to meet You, trusting that Your mercy is greater than life and that You will gather Your people into everlasting joy. Amen.

The consequences of being unprepared to meet the Lord!

Jesus' story of ten single ladies waiting for a wedding procession in the middle of the night seems strange to most westerners today. But Jesus' audience knew all too well how easily this could happen to them. Jesus warns us that there are consequences for being unprepared. There are certain things you cannot obtain at the last moment. For example, students cannot prepare for their exams when the day of testing is already upon them. A person cannot get the right kind of character, strength, and skill required for a task at hand unless they already possess it, such as a captain with courage and nautical skills who must steer a ship through a dangerous storm at sea.

When the Lord Jesus comes to lead you to His heavenly banquet, will we be ready to hear His voice and follow? Our eternal welfare depends on our hearing, and many have trained themselves to not hear. We will not be prepared to meet the Lord, face to face, when He calls us on the day of judgment, unless we listen to Him today. The Lord invites us to feast at His heavenly banquet table. Are we ready?

Finance Committee still seeking Sunday Offering Counters

The Parish is currently served by two groups of Sunday Offering Counters.
Diocesan policy (and best practice) calls for five groups of counters.
The groups require four or five counters per group.
With five groups an individual volunteer would participate in a single count every four to five weeks; each count takes an hour to an hour and a half .
Training will be provided along with an opportunity to count with more experienced counters to learn the various roles involved in counting Sunday offerings. A police check is required for all volunteer counters and will be reimbursed by the Diocese.
If you are willing to volunteer as a Sunday Offering Counter, please contact Kevin Fowke at
(705) 665 - 0348 or kevinfowke2@gmail.com.

If you want to buy one or more for your family, you can do so (no tax receipts on those) and we will deliver them to the Church in December.
