

Welcome to

St. Andrew the Apostle Catholic Church

October 11th, 2026 – 28th Sunday in ordinary time - Year - A

I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life." Psalm 23:6

Heavenly Father, Thank You for the gracious invitation to Your Heavenly Kingdom and the spiritual feast prepared through faith in Christ. Open our ears and soften our hearts to hear Your call clearly. Help us to never take Your invitation for granted or ignore it for worldly distractions. Grant us the grace to respond with joy, clothed in humility, repentance, and the righteousness of Christ. Strengthen us to live each day as welcome guests, sharing Your love, kindness, and mercy with everyone around us. May Your Spirit inspire our praise and thanksgiving as we worship together in Your presence. Amen

An invitation we cannot refuse!

In today's Gospel, the second part of the story focuses on those who had no claim on the king and who would never have considered getting such an invitation. The "good and the bad" along the highways certainly referred to the Gentiles (non-Jews) and to sinners. This is certainly an invitation of grace - undeserved, unmerited favor and kindness! But this invitation also contains a warning for those who refuse it or who approach the wedding feast unworthily. God's grace is a free gift, but it is also an awesome responsibility. We can expect trials and even persecution. But in the end, we will see triumph. Do we follow and serve the Lord Jesus with joyful hope and confidence in the victory He has won for us and the gift of abundant new life in the Holy Spirit?

God invites each of us as His friends to His heavenly banquet that we may celebrate with Him and share in His joy. Are we ready to feast at the Lord's banquet table? Lord Jesus! May I always know the joy of living in Your presence and grow in the hope of seeing You face to face in Your everlasting kingdom.
