

Welcome to

St. Andrew the Apostle Catholic Church

October 25th, 2026 – 30th Sunday in ordinary time - Year - A

"Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind."
Jesus, Matt 22:37

I love you, Lord my strength. Psalm. 18:2

Heavenly Father, You have given us the greatest commandment: to love You with all our heart, with all our soul and with all our mind. Forgive us for the times our affections wander, and we place other things before You. Fill our hearts with Your unconditional love so that we may worship and serve You without holding anything back. You also gave us a second commandment: to love our neighbor as ourselves. Help us to see the people around us through Your eyes-especially those who are hurting, forgotten. Give us gentle, generous, and forgiving spirits that reflect the love Christ showed us. Amen

We do not earn God's love - it is freely given

How can we possibly love God above all else and obey His commandments willingly and joyfully, and how can we love our neighbor and willingly lay down our life for their sake? Paul the Apostle tells us that "hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit which has been given to us" (Romans 5:5). We do not earn God's love - it is freely given to those who open their heart to God and who freely accept the gift of the Holy Spirit. Ask the Lord Jesus to flood your heart with His love through the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Faith in God and hope in His promises strengthens us in the love of God. The Lord Jesus, through the gift of the Holy Spirit, gives us a new freedom to love as He loves. The more we know of God the more we love Him and the more we love Him the greater we believe and hope in His promises. Paul the Apostle writes, "For freedom Christ has set us free... only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh [sinful inclinations], but through love be servants of one another". Do we allow anything to keep us from the love of God and the joy of serving others with a generous heart?
