St. Andrew the Apostle Catholic Church

July 19th 2026 – 16th Ordinary Sunday - Year A

Heavenly Father, Thank You for planting me in Your field and for Your grace that nourishes my growth. Give me the patience to trust Your timing and the wisdom to know that ultimate judgement belongs to You alone. Guard my heart against the temptations of the world and help me focus on bearing good fruit. When I encounter difficulties or evil around me, remind me to let my roots go deep into Your love and trust that You will make all things right in the end.

In Jesus' name, I pray. Amen.

Growth and transformation from within:

The tiny mustard seed literally grew to be a tree which attracted numerous birds because they loved the little black mustard seed it produced. God's kingdom works in a similar fashion. It starts from the smallest beginnings in the hearts of men and women who are receptive to God's word. And it works unseen and causes transformation from within.

Good and evil are sown in our hearts like tiny seeds which germinate, and in due time yield a harvest of good or bad fruit. Charles Read said: "Sow an act and you reap a habit. Sow a habit and you reap a character. Sow a character and you reap a destiny." In the day of judgement each will reap what he or she has sown in this life. Those who sow good will shine in the kingdom of their Father. They will radiate with the beauty, joy, and fullness of God's love. Do we allow the love of Christ to rule in our hearts and in our actions?
