

Welcome to

St. Andrew the Apostle Catholic Church

October 18th, 2026 – 29th Sunday in ordinary time - Year - A

Give the Lord glory and honor." Psalm 96:7

Heavenly Father! You are the source of all truth, wisdom, and life. You hold the universe in Your hands, and every breath we take belongs to You. When we face the noise, divisions, and pressures of this world, grant us the clarity and discernment that Jesus showed. Help us to be honest citizens who fulfill our fair duties and respect the leaders and communities around us. Help us to give back to You what is Yours: our whole hearts, our unwavering trust, and our daily service. When we are tempted to divide our loyalties, draw us back to Your grace. Claim us entirely as Your own. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

We have been "stamped" with God's image and likeness

Jesus avoided their trap by confronting them with the image of a coin. Coinage in the ancient world had significant political power. Rulers issued coins with their own image and inscription on them. In a certain sense the coin was regarded as the personal property of the ruler. Where the coin was valid the ruler held political sway over the people. Since the Jews used the Roman currency, Jesus explained that what belonged to Caesar must be given to Caesar.

This story has another deeper meaning as well. We, too, have been stamped with God's image since we are created in His own likeness - "God created man in His own image". We rightfully belong not to ourselves, but to God who created us and redeemed us in the precious blood of His Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. Paul the Apostle says that we are to present our bodies as a living sacrifice to God. Do we acknowledge that our lives and everything we possess belongs to God and not to ourselves? And do we give to God what rightfully belongs to Him?

October 2026 – Pope's Intention - For mental health ministry

Let us pray that the mental health ministry be established throughout the Church, helping to overcome the stigma and discrimination of persons with mental illness.

This 3rd Weekend

We remember the sick people who are admitted in hospitals and at home.

Let us pray for them.

Almighty ever living God, healer of the sick, we turn to You in this time of illness. Relieve the worry and sorrow of the sick persons among us with Your gentle love and grant them the grace to accept this burden. We place them under Your care and humbly ask that You restore your servants to good health again . Amen

PARISH MINISTRY FAIR WEEKEND!

Have you ever wondered how you can get more involved in our parish community?

There is a place for YOU!

Stop by the Ministry Fair in the parish hall after Mass and discover the many ministries, groups, and opportunities available at St. Andrew the Apostle. Whether you have a little time to offer, a particular talent to share, or simply want to meet others and become more connected, we invite you to actively participate and see what our parish has to offer.

Don't miss this opportunity to discover where you can share your gifts, serve others and grow in faith.

Come. Connect. Serve. Belong.

Visit the Ministry Fair this weekend!

“A Sincere Thank You”

St. Andrew the Apostle Parish, the Knights of Columbus and Inner-City Home extends a Sincere Thank You to the all the Parishioners who so generously contributed and supported our Food Drive held on Thanksgiving weekend.

With your contributions we were able to collect approximately 100 lbs. of food and another outstanding total of $6,495 in cash and cheques.

This is a tremendous amount of donations to such a worthy cause.

We are so blessed and fortunate to have such caring and supportive parishioners at St. Andrew who put their faith into action by continually contributing to those less fortunate in our community.

These donations will go a very long way in aiding the many needy families and children in our community who rely on the services of Inner-City Home.

Once again, “Thank You” to Fr. Denis and the Parishioners of St. Andrew for your continued generosity and support.

The Drop in Foreign Aid and Catholic Social Teaching

In recent years wealthier countries in response to global security threats are diverting more funding to the arms and defense and much less to foreign aid. In 2025, total spending on official development assistance (ODA) by the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) countries fell by 23.1 per cent, the largest decrease in history. ODA supports vital efforts and interventions like health care, climate resilience, food security and more. In November of 2025, the Canadian federal government announced $2.7 billion in spending cuts on foreign aid over four years.

As foreign aid funding decreases D&P's partners in the global south are forced to make cuts to vital services offered in communities already weakened by conflict and severe droughts and famines brought on by the effects of climate change. A partner in Sudan said her colleagues had to choose which medical clinics they had to close as they were forced to layoff aid workers. They made these decisions in full awareness that people in the impacted communities would die with no access to medical services.

Over time Catholic Social Teaching developed the idea of “integral human development” whereby the development of countries is measured by how effectively they can provide and maintain the conditions for all human beings to lead a healthy, dignified life. Our global economy has generated an immense amount of inequality, not only between people but even between countries. Catholic Social Teaching calls on wealthier countries like Canada to do their part to contribute to integral human development especially by providing resources for countries trapped in poverty.

This Fall D&P invites parishes to advance these principles of Catholic Social Teaching by meeting with their member of parliament to make international solidarity a priority. Consider signing up for our new “Social Action Team” to participate in this meeting and other community opportunities for Social Action.

We invite the faithful to join in the prayer offered by the Holy Father himself

Sweet Mother, do not part from me.

Turn not your eyes away from me.

Walk with me at every moment and never leave me alone.

You who always protect me as a true Mother, obtain for me the blessing of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

If a loved one has died from last November until now

And you would like their name inscribed in our

Book of Remembrance,

Please print their name on the paper located on the back table and place the paper in the basket.
