

Welcome to
St. Andrew the Apostle Catholic Church
September 20th 2026 – 25th Sunday in ordinary time - Year - A

The Lord is near to all who call upon Him. (Psalm.145:18)

Heavenly Father, thank You for Your boundless generosity and the gift of Your unearned grace.

Open our hearts to truly understand Your ways, which go far beyond our human rules.

Lord, we confess that we often look at the world through a human lens of comparison, keeping score and wondering if things are "fair." Help us to rejoice in the Generosity of God.

Thank You that Your love is lavish and that heaven's grace is without limit. Give us humble spirits to serve You joyfully today, trusting completely in Your goodness, because the last shall be first, and the first shall be last. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

God is generous and gives us work for His kingdom:

What can work and wages, welfare and the unemployed tell us about the kingdom of God? In the parable of the laborers in the vineyard we see the extraordinary generosity and compassion of God (Matthew 20:1-16). There is great tragedy in unemployment, the loss of work, and the inability to earn enough to live and support oneself or one's family.

In Jesus' time laborers had to wait each day in the marketplace until someone hired them for a day's job. No work that day usually meant no food on the family table. The laborers who worked all day and received their payment complain that the master pays the late afternoon laborers the same wage. The master, undoubtedly, hired them in the late afternoon so they wouldn't go home payless and hungry.

God is generous in opening the doors of His kingdom to all who will enter, both those who have labored a life-time for Him and those who come at the last hour. While the reward is the same, the motive for one's labor can make all the difference. Some work only for reward. Others labor out of love and joy for the opportunity to work and to serve others. The Lord Jesus calls each one of us to serve God and His kingdom with joy and zeal and to serve our neighbor with a generous spirit as well.
