

Welcome to
St. Andrew the Apostle Catholic Church
September 13th 2026 – 24th Sunday in ordinary time - Year - A

The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger, and rich in compassion. Psalm.103:8

Heavenly Father, we come before You acknowledging the massive debt of sin we owe You.

Just like the king in Jesus' parable, You have looked upon us with compassion, listened to our pleas and completely cancelled the debt we could never hope to pay back.

Thank You for Your amazing grace and for wiping our slate clean. Give us the strength through Your Holy Spirit to let go of grudges, anger and the desire for revenge.

Help us to truly forgive from our hearts, extending the same boundless grace to our brothers and sisters that You have so freely poured out on us.

In Jesus' name, we pray, Amen.

Mercy seasons justice and perfects it:

Mercy is the flip-side of God's justice. Without mercy justice is cold, calculating and even cruel. Mercy seasons justice as salt seasons meat and gives it flavor. Mercy follows justice and perfects it. Justice demands that the wrong be addressed. To show mercy without addressing the wrong and to pardon the unrepentant is not true mercy but license.

C.S. Lewis, a 20th century Christian author wrote: "Mercy will flower only when it grows in the crannies of the rock of Justice: transplanted to the marshlands of mere Humanitarianism, it becomes a man-eating weed, all the more dangerous because it is still called by the same name as the mountain variety." If we want mercy shown to us we must be ready to forgive others from the heart as God has forgiven us.

Do we hold any grudge or resentment towards anyone? Let us ask the Lord to purify our hearts that we may show mercy and loving-kindness to all - and especially to those who cause us grief and ill-will. Lord Jesus, You have been kind and forgiving towards me. May I be merciful as You are merciful. Free me from all bitterness and resentment that I may truly forgive from the heart those who have caused me injury or grief.
