Welcome to

St. Andrew the Apostle Catholic Church

November 15th, 2026 – 33rd Sunday in ordinary time - Year - A

Blessed are those who fear the Lord." Psalm 128:1a

Lord God, everything good I possess comes from Your generous hand.
Keep me from hiding Your gifts through fear, laziness, or self-concern. Give me the wisdom to recognize what You have entrusted to me and the courage to use it for the good of others. Help me remain in Christ, awake to Your presence and steady in faithful service. Teach me to walk in Your ways, to work with integrity, and to open my hands to those in need. When You call me to account, may I be found faithful and ready to enter Your joy. Amen.

God rewards those who use their gifts for serving him and the good of others!

What do coins and the law of economics have to do with the kingdom of God? The Lord entrusts the subjects of His kingdom with gifts and graces, and He gives His subjects the freedom to use them as they think best. With each gift and talent, God gives sufficient means (grace and wisdom) for using them in a fitting way. As the parable of the talents shows, God abhors indifference and an attitude that says it's not worth trying. God honors those who use their talents and gifts for doing good. Those who are faithful with even a little are entrusted with more! But those who neglect or squander what God has entrusted to them will lose what they have.

There is an important lesson here for us. No one can stand still for long in the Christian life. We either get more or we lose what we have. We either advance towards God or we slip back. Do we seek to serve God with the gifts, talents, and graces He has given to us? Lord Jesus! Be the ruler of my heart and thoughts, be the king of my home and relationships and be the master of my work and service.

Finance Committee still seeking Sunday Offering Counters

The Parish is currently served by two groups of Sunday Offering Counters.
Diocesan policy (and best practice) calls for five groups of counters.
The groups require four or five counters per group.
With five groups an individual volunteer would participate in a single count every four to five weeks; each count takes an hour to an hour and a half .
Training will be provided along with an opportunity to count with more experienced counters to learn the various roles involved in counting Sunday offerings. A police check is required for all volunteer counters and will be reimbursed by the Diocese.
If you are willing to volunteer as a Sunday Offering Counter, please contact Kevin Fowke at
(705) 665 - 0348 or kevinfowke2@gmail.com.

Safe Environment Training
Who? All ministry leaders, members of ministry teams and any parishioner who is interested in attending.
When? Saturday, November 21 at 10:00am to 12noon.
Where? Father Kennedy Room.

Why? We need to understand the Diocesan requirements regarding this timely and important topic. Keeping all parishioners safe, including the vulnerable, children and the elderly, is of utmost importance

Mass on Friday November 20th is at 9.00am NOT at Noon. Thank you.

A beautiful tradition in the Catholic Church is to have a Mass offered in the memory of or in honor of a person, or for a special intention. There is no charge to request a Mass, but a donation is welcome. and gratefully accepted. The usual donation is $15.

This 3rd Weekend

We remember the sick people who are admitted in hospitals and at home.

Let us pray for them.

Almighty ever living God, healer of the sick, we turn to You in this time of illness. Relieve the worry and sorrow of the sick persons among us with Your gentle love and grant them the grace to accept this burden. We place them under Your care and humbly ask that You restore your servants to good health again . Amen

FEAST OF ST. ANDREW THE APOSTLE

Our parish will celebrate the Feast of our patron saint, St. Andrew,

Date: Sunday, November 29,

Time: after the 10:00am Mass

Venue: in the Parish Hall.

We will have a potluck, and all willing parishioners, including families of our original parishioners, are invited to contribute food.

Sign-up sheets are pinned on the bulletin board at the back of the church, the north entrance, and the lobby.

Thank you for your generosity

Are you going to be a patient at Health Sciences North?

Did you know that due to the privacy laws of the province, that the only way your parish priest will know that you're in hospital and want a visit to receive the Sacrament of the Sick or a prayer, is for you the patient or a loved one to contact him and let him know of your admission. So, if you are, or will be a patient at Health Sciences North and would like to see the parish priest, please ensure that you, or a loved one, make him aware of your request.

Thank You.
