

Welcome to
St. Andrew the Apostle Catholic Church
June 14th 2026 – 11th Sunday in ordinary time - Year - A

“We are His people, the sheep of His flock.” Psalm.100:3

Lord of the Harvest, You looked upon the crowds and saw them not as a multitude, but as dejected, like sheep without a shepherd. Your heart was moved with compassion. You said the harvest is rich, and I see it all around me in the loneliness, the confusion, the sickness, and the searching hearts. You also said the labourers are few. Lord, forgive me for the times I have stood by, waiting for someone else to step up. Lord, make me a labourer today. Fill me with Your Spirit and send me into our family, my workplace, my neighborhood.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Jesus chose ordinary people to do extraordinary work

When Jesus proclaimed the good news of God's kingdom He also demonstrated the power of the Gospel with supernatural signs and wonders. Jesus healed people who suffered physical, emotional, and mental illnesses. He freed people from spiritual bondage to sin and demonic powers. Jesus gave his disciples the same authority he had to heal and set people free from spiritual bondage.

Jesus commissioned his disciples to carry on the works which He did - to speak God's word and to bring His healing power to the weary and oppressed. In the choice of the twelve apostles we see a characteristic feature of God's work - Jesus chose very ordinary people. They were non-professionals, had no wealth or privileged position. They were chosen from the common people who did ordinary things, had no special education, and no social advantages.

Jesus wanted ordinary people who could take an assignment and do it extraordinarily well. He chose these men, not for what they were, but for what they would be capable of becoming under his direction and power. When the Lord calls us to serve, we must not think we have nothing or very little to offer. The Lord takes what ordinary people, like us, can offer and uses it for greatness in His kingdom. Do we believe that God wants to work in and through us for His glory?

The month of June is dedicated to the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. Our Lord revealed His Sacred Heart burning with love, crowned with thorns and wounded by humanity's indifference to Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque in the seventeenth century. He invited the faithful to respond through prayer, reparation and trust in His Mercy. Jesus asked that the Friday after the Octave of Corpus Christi (June 12, 2026) be dedicated to honoring His Sacred Heart. This Revelation was extended to the entire church by Pope Pius IX in 1856. As we begin this month, let us entrust our families, intentions and hearts to Christ, who never ceases to love us.
