SOLEMNITY
OF ALL SAINTS

Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face. Psalm. 24:6

Father of mercy, You have loved us so deeply that You call us Your children. Give us a heart that seeks your face and trusts Your promises. When we are burdened, make us poor in spirit and open to Your grace. Teach us to be meek without weakness, merciful without keeping score, pure in heart and faithful to justice. Through the blood of the Lamb, cleanse what is sinful in us and strengthen us when discipleship brings hardship. Make our lives signs of Your peace, until we rejoice with all Your Saints before Your throne. Amen.

Holiness – Life of those who belong to God, seek His face:

The vision of the great multitude reveals where the Beatitudes lead: a people from every nation standing before God and the Lamb, their robes made white through tribulation and the blood of Christ. Holiness is not an escape from suffering, nor a reward reserved for a select few. It is the life of those who belong to God, seek His face, and allow His mercy to purify them.

Jesus names the attitudes that mark this people: poverty of spirit, meekness, mercy, purity of heart, hunger for justice, and peacemaking. These qualities may seem powerless in a world that values control and recognition, yet Jesus calls them blessed because they reflect the life of the children of God. We already bear this identity, even though its full glory has not appeared. Hope of seeing God as He gives shape to the present.

In ordinary choices, we can practice mercy, make peace, keep our hearts undivided, and remain faithful when goodness is costly. The people who long to see God's face begin to resemble Him now.

INNER CITY HOME -HAM DONATION

Joe Drago and Julio Navarro will be asking parishioners to purchase and donate back Black Forest 2kg Style Hams to support Inner city home families who are suffering from food insecurities to grace their tables and enjoy this Christmas on

Saturday, November 14 and Sunday November 15

Last year, over 200 hams were donated to Inner city home and were greatly received by the families that received them.

The cost is $35.00 (cash or cheque), and tax receipts will be given.

If you want to buy one or more for your family, you can do so (no tax receipts on those) and we will deliver them to the Church in December.

We thank you in advance for your never-ending support and generosity.
