

Welcome to
St. Andrew the Apostle Catholic Church
May 31st 2026 – Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity - Year - A

“Glory and praise for ever!” Daniel.3:52b

Heavenly Father, I come before You with a heart full of gratitude and reverence for the profound love You have shown the world. Thank You for sending Your one and only Son, Jesus Christ, that I might not perish but have everlasting life. Lord, I am humbled by Your promise that Jesus came not to condemn me, but to save me. Thank You that, by placing my trust in Him, I am not condemned but adopted into Your family. Help me to fully grasp the magnitude of this love and to walk in the light of Your truth, turning away from darkness. Strengthen my faith, that I may live as a beneficiary of this incredible gift of grace. Amen.

Triune nature of God

The Lord Jesus has revealed to His disciples the great mystery of our faith - the triune nature of God and the inseparable union of the eternal Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Jesus' mission is to reveal the glory of God to us - a Trinity of persons - God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit - and to unite us with God in a community of love. The ultimate end, the purpose for which God created us, is the entry of God's creatures into the perfect unity of the blessed Trinity.

The Jews understood God as Creator and Father of all that He made (Deuteronomy 32:6) and they understood the nation of Israel as God's firstborn Son. Jesus reveals the Father in an unheard of sense. He is eternally Father by His relationship to His only Son, who, reciprocally, is Son only in relation to His Father. The Spirit, likewise, is inseparably one with the Father and the Son.

The mission of Jesus and of the Holy Spirit are the same. That is why Jesus tells His disciples that the Spirit will reveal the glory of the Father and the Son and will speak what is true. Before His Passover, Jesus revealed the Holy Spirit as the "Paraclete" and Helper who will be with Jesus' disciples to teach and guide them "into all the truth".

Facts about the Holy Trinity

- ⇒ The word “Trinity” comes from the Latin word trinitas, which means “three” or “triad.” The Greek equivalent is triados.
- ⇒ The first surviving use of the term (there may have been earlier uses that are now lost) was around A.D. 170 by Theophilus of Antioch, who wrote: In like manner also the three days which were before the luminaries, are types of the Trinity [Τριάδος], of God, and His Word, and His wisdom. And the fourth is the type of man, who needs light, that so there may be God, the Word, wisdom, man [To Autolyucus 2:15].
- ⇒ The dogma of the Trinity was defined in two stages, at the First Council of Nicaea (A.D. 325) and the First Council of Constantinope (A.D. 381). First Nicaea defined the divinity of the Son and wrote the part of the Creed that deals with the Son. First Constantinople defined the divinity of the Holy Spirit and wrote the part of the Creed that deals with the Spirit.
- ⇒ The Old Testament has been interpreted as referring to the Trinity in many places. One of these is the prophecy about the Messiah in Isaiah 9. The Messiah is called "Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace."
